

YOUTH CELEBRATE DIVERSITY

Call for Workshop Proposals

The Student Board planning the annual Colorado Youth Diversity Conference is currently seeking workshop proposals on a wide variety of topics, and we invite you to submit a proposal.

About the Colorado Youth Diversity Conference

This event welcomes 1,000+ high school students and educators from 100+ schools and youth organizations across Colorado, and will feature two workshop sessions on the day of the conference, which takes place on Saturday, February 1, 2025 and will be hosted by Cherry Creek High School.

Presenters will need to arrive on the CCHS campus no later than 10:30am for registration. The first workshop session will run from 12:10 – 1:20pm; the second workshop session will run from 1:30 – 2:40pm. Each workshop will include a mixture of 20–30 students and adults from various schools across the state.

More information about the program is available at <https://ycdiversity.org/events/colorado-youth-diversity-conference/>.

Priority Topics

We welcome workshops on a variety of topics, to help students find the information they need to address the social challenges they are facing in their local schools and communities. The teens on this year's YCD Colorado Student Board are particularly interested in receiving proposals on the topics below:

- Anti-oppression vocabulary 101
- Breaking down / combating bias and stereotypes
- Bystanders, allies and accomplices
- Microaggressions
- Conflict resolution
- Preventing and responding to harassment and bullying
- Mindfulness and physical health

- Addiction
- Suicide prevention and teen mental health
- How to have hard/courageous conversations
- Anti-racism
- Youth activism
- Policing, police brutality, and criminal justice reform
- Amplifying/lifting up Indigenous identities and voices
- Feminism, including intersectional approaches
- Sexual assault
- Healthy masculinity
- Gender diversity
- LGBTQ+ youth and related issues
- Disability justice
- Decolonizing curriculum
- Creating inclusive teen sports, athletics, and extracurricular activities
- Combating Islamophobia and Anti-Semitism
- Religious diversity and interfaith dialogue
- Immigration and immigrants
- Understanding poverty and class differences
- Cultural performance and artistic expression for social change
- and any other topic you may want to propose for consideration

Process and Deadline

Please visit our website at <https://ycdiversity.org/get-involved/propose-a-workshop/> to propose your workshop idea. The form takes approximately 15 minutes to complete.

We encourage you to submit a proposal by Friday, December 6, 2025 for priority consideration.

Once we've received all of the proposals, the Student Board will be going through them to determine which workshops to feature at this year's conference. If you have presented a workshop with us before and would like to be considered for the same workshop/content once again, you can email us (info below) to notify us.

Questions

Please contact Caleb Munro at cmunro@ycdiversity.org or (720) 507-0746. We hope you'll consider presenting at this year's event!